Letter No. 21 of 5-7-02 from the of Comt Hassan to ⁵ re grant of land bearing Survey No 88 of the Haranahally village Besikere. K., free of assessment for the benefit of Sri Someswara Swami Temple

Note

The land in question is 8 ac 32 guntas in extent. Before the introduction of Sur: Settlement it formed part of the Compound of the temple and was ^{formal in the enjoyment of the temple.} ~~assigned as a formal~~. At the Sur: settle it was assessed (Rs 9-2-0) and ^{subsequently} ~~transferred~~ ^{given} to Girannaik, Shambhog. The Municipality of Haranahally acquired the land from the Shambhog paying him a compensation of Rs 81/- in order to raise a mango plantation and it proved a failure. The assessment is being continued to be paid by the Municipality.

Krishnappa - a devotee of the temple - pray for the land being granted free of assessment ^{to the temple} and its being allowed to be added on to the Compound of the temple with a view to as much of the land as so required as compound is being left uncultivated and the rest given out for cultivation for the benefit of the temple. The Headman and the Dikhan recommend the grant. The Municipality is willing to part with the land without claiming any compensation therefor.

The land may be transferred to the temple.

Whether the assessment should be struck off now, either wholly or partly, is a point for consideration.

The land be

If retained as formal as before the survey, the temple might be excused from paying the assessment.

The Deputy Secretary

Sir,

As requested in Muzrai's Secretary's Rubkari No 1442 d 16th June 1897, I have the honor to state that a piece of land forming the Compound of Sri Someshwara Swamy temple at ~~Harna~~ Harnahalli, Assikere Taluk, was famal at the enjoyment of the temple prior to the introduction of the Survey Settle ment when it was numbered as Survey

Survey no 88 measuring 8 acres 3 32 funtas and assessed Rs 9-2-0. The land was then leased out to one Shambhoji Giviyanna from whom it was acquired by the Harurahally Municipality, paying him a compensation of Rs 81/- for being planted up with mango plants. As the plants died out, the land is lying waste the assessment being regularly paid by the municipality.

2. With a view to enhance the income of the said temple for the regular performance of the puja and proper maintenance of the temple, Krishnappa one of the devotees prays and the Amildar recommends that the compound above referred to may be granted to the institution free of assessment as the a/c.

income of Rs 7-7-3 derived from the Inam lands is quite insufficient.
The members of the Municipal Board are unanimous in their opinion for making over the land to the temple without claiming for any compensation (Vide Extract from proceedings of the Municipal Board dated 20th February 1899). The Amildar reports that as much compound as is necessary ~~for the temple~~ will be retained uncultivated and the rest given out for cultivation, the produce being utilized for the benefit of the temple in addition to the ready money allowance of Rs 10-2-11 a year, which had been resumed at the time of Inam Settlement but now restored as per Government Proceedings no. 244-6 dated 14th August 1898-3. — In March last I inspected the temple and its Compound.

The temple is in good repair and I learn that the puja is being properly performed. As the prayer of the devotees seems reasonable, I request you will kindly obtain Government sanction for the grant of the above land to the temple free of assessment.
